From the assistant principal...

What an adventure we had this week! The Principal's Book of Secrets sure did cause excitement around our school. We would not have been able to figure out the clues without the help of everyone (including our virtual students)! And what a great way to end the week - seeing all of you in your costumes! Check out a few of the pictures!

Pictures came in this week so, if you ordered pictures, be sure to check your child's backpack today for Cohort B or on Monday for Cohort A. Class pictures will be sent home after they arrive. If your child is a virtual student and you ordered pictures, you can pick them up in the front office from 10:00-2:00.

Did you see the snow today! With the change in weather, please remember to send your child to school in layers. We will be outside for recess as much as possible.

If you have any questions or concerns, let me know.

Be kind to someone younger.

I played a kind game with my 2 year old cousin nicely.

I do kind deeds by helping my little brothers go to sleep and helping my mother get their bottles ready.

I was kind to my dog.

I brushed my moms hair.

I did all my school work for my mom.

I was kind to my baby Brother by playing with him he is 1 year old.

I actually heard a strange sound... it sounded like AI.

Attendance Matters. You Matter.

LATE ARRIVALS & ABSENCES

Students are late to school when the bell rings at 8:55. If your child arrives late to school, please remember that an adult must sign them in at the school office.

Virtual and in-person absences must be reported to the school office - please call the school at: 860-449-5640. Also, all absences must be followed up with a note sent to the school office at rwallis@groton.k12.ct.us.

Creepy Carrots!

By: Aaron Reynolds

The kindergarten students enjoyed making 'creepy carrots' after reading the book by Aaron Reynolds!
